SHELL GAME — Gladys Surplus braves the cold in her search for beach treasures along the chilly Cohasset shore.

Alfred Fiandaca, Boston couturier, will present his only South Shore fashion show for the Thayer Academy Parents Club on March 7. Cochairmen of the fundraising event are Mrs. Frederic Wood Jr. and Mrs. Harold Coughlin of Cohasset. Mrs. Frederick Thayer Jr. is also on the committee.

Lynn O'Toole of Haystack Lane was unanimously elected captain of the CHS hockey team cheerleaders. Lynn is also president of the junior class and an honor student.

The Robert Coughlins were invited to the White House State Dinner for Chinese Vice Premier Teng Hsiao-Ping. The dinner was given to celebrate the formal establishment of U.S.-Chinese relations. The White House was besieged with requests for invitations to the dinner and the Kennedy Center entertainment. Officials said it was the most sought-after dinner they had and invitations were so tight no senior staffer except national security advisor Zbigniew Brzezinski was invited. The dinner tables were decorated with bowls of pink and white camellias, a flower discovered in China in 2737 BC.

In the ISIA Middle Atlantic Skating competition, Elizabeth McGuire and Cheryl Adams were gold medalists and Patty Oddi placed at Lake Placid, N.Y. Cohasset finished third overall against teams from all over the U.S. and Canada in freestyle, patch, dance and couples.

Edward and Eileen Jacome of Norfolk Road prepared spaghetti and sauce served to 100 guests of the Nursery School Parents Committee of the Community Center. Salad, breads, wine, dessert and coffee were included at the supper. Raffle prizes of gift certificates to the Wine and Cheese Shop and a Toyland shopping spree were won by Abigail Adams and Peter Collins Jr.

How to do the impossible 7 different ways.

Saving money isn't easy. Some people say it's downright impossible. But at South Shore we make the effort well worth your while. By offering a wide selection of savings plans to suit every lifestyle. And by promising the highest interest rate the law will allow. Look into these plans. Quite possibly there's one perfect for you.

1. Six Month Money Market Certificate.

9.376% (This was the rate through February 7, 1979.) The interest you'll earn on this certificate is excellent, equal to the U.S. Treasury Bill average six month rate in effect as of the date of issue. So the rate will fluctuate. Call us for the current reading. On this certificate, a minimum of $10,000 is required.

2. Eight Year Certificate.

7 7/8% Annual Interest. 8.17% Effective Yield. You'll benefit from this generous interest rate as long as you keep at least $1,000 on deposit.

3. Four Year Certificate.

7 1/2% Annual Interest. 7.63% Effective Yield. The minimum amount required on balance is just the same as the Eight Year Certificate. But you'll see terrific interest in just four years.

4. Two-And-A-Half Year Certificate.

6 1/2% Annual Interest. 6.81% Effective Yield. All it takes is a minimum of $250 on deposit for this period, and you'll earn super interest.

5. One Year Certificate.

6% Annual Interest. 6.27% Effective Yield. Promise to leave at least $250 in this account for no less than one year, and you'll be very glad you did.

6. Ninety Day Notice Account.

5 1/2% Annual Interest. 5.64% Effective Yield. As long as you maintain a balance of at least $200, you'll benefit from a better than average interest rate.

7. Regular Savings Account.

5% Annual Interest. 5.12% Effective Yield. Nobody should be without a Regular Savings Account, especially at South Shore Bank!

On all certificates, there is a penalty for withdrawal of funds before maturity.
